'Mobile
America' Heads South

This year 12.5 million American families—or one out of every five—will change residences. Most will make local moves, involving short distances within the same city or county, but at least one-fourth of all moves will be to a new state.

Although transfers of upward-bound young executives by their corporate employers account for many moves, 30 per cent of families moving involve military personnel and another 30 per cent is due to personal reasons.

More than half of those moving from one state to another will be leaving the Middle Atlantic and North Central States while only two-fifths of moves are into those regions. Most people move into the South, and the Pacific and Mountain states.

We are not surprised that the "mobile American" is looking southward. Opportunity beckons him.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph

In And Out And Up

Soap manufacturers say that while the heat's on, they'll take enzymes out of their detergents. But they intend to keep the increase in prices that they placed when the enzymes were introduced.

Then they'll wait a few years, one observer claims, and put the enzymes back in the detergents after the furor about possible harmful effects of the ingredient dies down. And when the enzymes go back in again, it probably will offer a good opportunity to boost the price again.

Let's just hope the gasoline industry, which is currently busy getting the lead out, doesn't get wise to this game. It could go on forever.—Birmingham (Ala.) News

Water Loan and Grant to Fulton

Congressman John Paul Hammerschmidt informed The Star today that a loan of $150,300 and a grant of $125,500 from the Farmers Home Administration have been released for Fulton, Ark. for a rural community water and sewerage system. This system will serve 200 residents of Fulton and surrounding residents.

The loan will be repaid in 40 years, at an interest rate of 5 per cent. In addition to the FHA financial assistance, the Environmental Protection Agency will also grant funds for the project in the amount of $19,200.

Incident Reported at Hope High

Larry Patterson, juvenile probation officer, and City Policeman David Sulzer investigated an incident which was reported to have occurred Wednesday at Hope High School. A student, Joseph Turrentine, 15, was accused of assault with a deadly weapon by Coach Ronnie Higgins.

The investigation continues but no formal charges have been filed.

$81,000 Grant to Arkansas Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Health, Education and Welfare has approved an $81,000 grant to the Arkansas Council of Human Relations.

The money will be used in about 16 Arkansas communities to help school districts adjust to unified school systems.

Elijah Coleman, executive director of the council, said the funds would be spent between now and April 1972 to conduct seminars and community training in human relations; sponsor biracial student groups and to create "some organizational structure where school administrators, parents, teachers and students will be working together on a biracial basis.

FFA Rodeo Parade 4 pm Friday

Parade time for the 12th annual FFA Rodeo is 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

FFA Rodeo Queen Sandra Stevenson will follow the color bearers, escorted by FFA "cowboys." Kathy Cox, 1970 Junior Rodeo Queen, will lead the 1971 Queen contestants.

School is being dismissed at 2:05 so that many students and some faculty members may participate.

At 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday the grand entry led by Queen Sandra, Queen Kathy and the contestants will open the show.

Proceeds from the rodeo are used to buy equipment for the agri program.

Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

President in Salute to 4-H Clubs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon joined in a salute to the National 4-H Club Wednesday when its delegates came to the White House to give Mrs. Nixon a "Partner in 4-H award."

Addressing them in the East Room, the President called agriculture America's most productive industry that has made it possible to have great surpluses to help other nations throughout the world.

And he praised the clubs which enlist youngsters in farm-related projects to build character and idealism.

"With people like you," the President told some 200 national 4-H conference delegates "this country is still going to be the hope of the world" as it was when it started out as an infant nation.

Seventeen-year-old Nancy Donovan of Lompoc, Calif., gave Mrs. Nixon her 4-H award pin.

The First Lady was cited "for her inspiring example of concern for human welfare and bettering social conditions for many in our land" as well as stimulating interest in volunteer service and "for publicly expressing pride in her own 4-H experiences."

Mrs. Nixon has often related how she raised a prize-winning sow. The other day she laughingly reported her entry's name was "Piggy Wiggy."

Man Without Memory Is Man Without a Mind, Says Boyle

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — A man without a memory is a man without a mind.

The more memories that cluster within that bone-sheltered cluster of nerves we call our brain, the more knowledgeable we are and better able to deal with life. But memory has the power to deform as well as inform us.

It is well to pick and choose with care among our memories, summoning up the good ones as often as possible and relegating the bad ones to the dark closet of the mind and kept there under lock and key.

Your own house of memories is well-stocked if you can look back and remember when—

Glass of Water Is Precious Thing in Parched Florida City

DANIA, Fla. (AP) — A glass of water is becoming a precious commodity in some areas of drought-stricken Florida, hit by its worst dry spell in a quarter century.

In this Gold Coast community, City Manager Woodward Hampton has banned all lawn sprinkling and ordered restaurants to serve water only if customers request it.

Police have been ordered to issue warnings to offenders, he said. "And if that doesn't work I'll issue the citations on Monday myself," Woodward added. "It's the worst I've ever seen it and I've been here 20 years. This is the first time we've ever had to put a ban on water and it's serious for Hollywood and Fort Lauderdale, too," he said.

With the water table almost two feet below sea level, one of the city's wells is suffering salt water intrusion and the remaining three are threatened, Hampton said.

Weather forecasters said little or no rain is in sight until the middle of May. Since October only 5.05 inches of rainfall has been reported in South Florida compared to a normal 19.76 inches.

On the west coast, Tampa's water department has asked its 85,000 customers to stop watering their lawns on Monday—laundry day for many housewives—and to keep sprinklers off from 4-8 p.m. nightly, the peak home use period.

Sarasota has begun selling water to two suburban areas because 700 homeowners ran out of water for four days last week.

Sarasota County commissioners passed a resolution prohibiting lawn sprinkling. Cattle-men and citrus growers cannot irrigate in the daytime.

State Income Deadline Is May 15

Commissioner of Revenues, A. B. Hervey, Jr., today in Little Rock reminded Arkansas taxpayers that the deadline for filing their 1970 State Income Tax Return is May 15. Hervey cautioned those filing returns during the next month that none of the income tax changes passed during this year's session of the General Assembly will apply to their 1970 returns.

B. Mack Lindsey, director of the State Department of Revenues Income Tax Division, said he had had some inquiries from individuals wishing to take advantage of Act 457 of 1971. Lindsey said this Act, which permits deductions up to twenty-five hundred dollars for contributions made to self-employment plans by self-employed individuals, will not go into effect until next year and should not be used on this year's returns.

Lindsey also advised persons filing estimated quarterly reports for individual income tax to start adjusting to the new rates provided by Act 221 of 1971. Lindsey said his division is in the process of publishing new withholding tax tables and he hopes to have the adjusted rates in the hands of all persons with withholding registration numbers and available to all persons filing estimated quarterly individual income tax returns June 30.

Commissioner Hervey said the revenue department is now drafting regulations for the new income tax revisions and hopes to make them available to all interested parties as soon as possible.

3 Are Named Postmasters in Arkansas

Appointment of 3 Postmasters to take charge of Arkansas post offices last Saturday, April 17, was announced today by Harold S. Wagner, Regional Director of the St. Louis Postal Service Region (Arkansas - Missouri - Iowa) of the U.S. Postal Service.

The appointments bring to 157 the number of Postmasters named in the three-state Region under the new, non-political, merit system established by the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970. Non-partisan Management Selection Boards recommend names to the Postmaster General who makes the appointments.

Those Arkansasans to take office on Saturday are: James Yoes, Greenland; Jere E. Stephens, Ashdown; Leon F. Jennings, Leslie.

Police Break Up Veterans' Capital Rally

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — District of Columbia police broke up a demonstration by Vietnam veterans on the steps of the Supreme Court building today, leading about 150 of the antiwar activists away to jail.

The veterans, in town this week for a series of activities aimed at speeding an end to the Vietnam war, offered generally no resistance as police escorted them from the steps under the huge pillars of the court to a police bus.

Some of the veterans told newsmen they were protesting specifically in opposition to Wednesday's Supreme Court decision upholding a U.S. District Court ruling forbidding the veterans to sleep, build fires or pitch tents on the Capital Mall where they have been staying all week.

Many of the veterans at the court clapped their hands on top of their heads and marched off with the police in what they called "prisoner of war style."

The veterans and about a half dozen girl antiwar protesters showed up at the court about 8:45 a.m. and began singing and chanting.

Some of their slogans included obscenities but the group was otherwise orderly.

Wednesday night, the veterans voted 480-400 to continue staying at the Mall site through the week of activities. They voted to sleep at that site, in violation of the court order.

Mail Service Expanded

Mail delivery has been expanded to give delivery service to 5,226 families and 21,426 individuals in the state of Arkansas since President Nixon signed the Postal Reorganization Act last August, according to Harold S. Wagner, Director of the St. Louis Postal Region (Arkansas—Missouri—Iowa).

"We have extended rural routes to bring gate delivery to 3,372 families and we have added 1,854 families to our city delivery network," Wagner said. "Under the new postal management we are going to provide our customers with superior service, and this expansion of delivery is another step forward."

Campus Sale of Papers Permitted

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas Wednesday began allowing the sale of off-campus newspapers, including the underground Ozark Mountain Times, in certain areas of the campus.

Several students and non-students selling the underground paper have been arrested in recent weeks under a state law that provides for the arrest of persons who refuse to leave the campus after being asked to do so by college officials.

A university spokesman said a decision had not been made on whether to continue prosecution of those arrested.

Corning S. & L. Plan Rejected

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An application for establishment of a savings and loan association at Corning was rejected Wednesday by the state Savings and Loan Association Board.

Several savings and loan associations serving the western portion of Clay County argued during a two-day hearing on the application against the location of a savings and loan at Corning.

Opposition to the proposal came from Pocahontas Savings and Loan Association, Pocahontas Federal Savings and Loan and Piggott Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Stage Lights Come on, But it's Dark to Players—Blind

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Backstage a switch was thrown, lighting the stage for four high school students rehearsing their annual spring play, but two of the students have no concept of light, other than what they have been told.

They are blind. The others have only partial vision.

But for one watching the rehearsals, at the Arkansas School for the Blind, it is difficult to realize that the students have impaired vision. They move across the stage with the ease and assurance that only comes with hours of practice.

In one scene, Betty Bryant, the director, hopped out of her chair, ran to the stage, struck a pose and the student-actress ran her fingers over the lines of her body, to see how it was done.

Another time, Miss Bryant told another student to point her finger for emphasis.

"How is that done Miss Bryant?" the student asked, and was shown.

"I'd rather talk about what they can do, rather than what they can't do," Miss Bryant said. "It's amazing."

Miss Bryant, 27, a combination kindergarten-speech teacher at the school, said that the students do not learn their lines faster than sighted actors nor do they learn the technical portion of running a play any better. But, she said, they are more aware of their physical presence on the stage.

"They have to learn exactly how many steps to take and every square inch of the stage, and do it so well it looks like they can see," she said.

Following last year's production she said several members of the audience expressed amazement that the students could move through the play as well as they did.

Miss Bryant also feels that a blind person can benefit from participating in a play.

"I feel it gives them the opportunity to act as a sighted person would act and react and a better insight into how things

Arabs May Threaten Rogers Tour

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arab anger at the U.S. sale of more warplanes to Israel may result in hostile demonstrations if U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers visits the Middle East the first week in May.

State Department aides said Wednesday that Rogers hoped to visit Israel, Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia after he attends the meeting next week in Turkey of the Central Treaty Organization. But already newspapers in Beirut and Cairo are whipping up an anti-American campaign reminiscent of the criticism that sparked demonstrations during Undersecretary of State Joseph Sisco's visit to Beirut a year ago.

Beirut's Al Liwa said Lebanese Foreign Minister Khalil Abuhamad had asked U.S. Ambassador William Buffum for an explanation of the U.S. sale of 12 more Phantom fighter-bombers to Israel.

Al Shaab, another Beirut paper, asked the 100 million Arabs: "What are you waiting for in order to move against U.S. interests in the Arab world?"

A visit by Rogers would be the first by a U.S. Secretary of State to the Arab world since John Foster Dulles went to Cairo in 1955.

The Phantom deal shared the spotlight in Egypt with Israel's new conditions for an agree-ment permitting reopening of the Suez Canal.

There will be a special call meeting of the Downtown Merchants Assn. next Tuesday, April 27, at 9:30 a.m. in the Chamber of Commerce Office. All members are urged to be present.

Panel Near Decision on SS Hike, Tax

By EDMOND LeBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The day of reckoning is here on the cost of Social Security-Medicare benefit changes approved by the House Ways and Means Committee—and the likely tab may be a 41-per-cent increase in payroll taxes.

That would mean a maximum of $166.80 each for employer and employee.

The committee has approved, subject to a final vote, costly increases in Social Security benefits, including higher payments for widows, a cost-of-living adjustment in the future, more leeway for pensioners' earnings and extension of Medicare to the disabled.

The committee started work Wednesday on payroll-tax changes needed to finance the increases. No firm decision has been reached, but sources said the most likely outcome would be an increase in the payroll tax Jan. 1, 1972, to 5.4 per cent on a base of $10,600 in wages.

This would mean a total of $72.40 in tax withheld from anyone earning $10,600 or more in 1972 and an equal amount from his employer.

By contrast, the rate this year is 5.2 per cent on a $7,800 maximum, or $405.60. The committee may still work out a different financing method, or even cut back on some of the benefit increases.

And whatever it decides must face the test of House and Senate consideration.

Health Plan Gets Union Support

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—J. Bill Becker, president of the state AFL-CIO told members of the West Little Rock Rotary Club Wednesday that his organization favored a proposed national health program now pending in Congress.

Becker said the United States was the last industrialized country to initiate a government - controlled health-care program. He said the purpose of the proposed program was to give more health care "for people who don't get enough now."

Medical resources, such as hospitals and doctors, were not being used efficiently, Becker said. He said the problem in health care did not lie in the professionalism within the medical services area, but in the delivery of the services to the people.

Schools Out Early on Friday

The Hope Schools will be out early Friday, for the F.F.A. Rodeo Parade, at 3:30.

Gls Ignore Court Order to End Camp

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — With implied approval of the Justice Department, hundreds of Vietnam veterans have ignored a Supreme Court order to break camp on the Mall while protesting the war in which they once fought.

The court upheld a lower-court ruling which banned camping on the grassy area between the Capitol and Lincoln Memorial. And former Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, a lawyer for Vietnam Veterans Against the War, suggested the demonstrators obey the order.

But a 480-400 vote Wednesday night affirmed sentiment voiced throughout the day by protesters: "Hell no, we won't go."

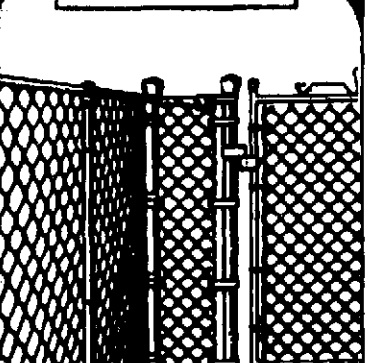

Spokesmen for the Justice Department, District of Columbia police and National Park Police indicated no action would be taken immediately against the battle-clad veterans.

"We are not going in there at 1 in the morning and pick up some wounded veteran and throw him into the street," said Park Police Lt. William R. Kinsey. "We don't treat people like that."

Lt. L.H. Herring, asked if it might take days for official word of the court order to reach Park Police, smiled and replied, "You're right."

But the veterans, who promised any resistance to police would be nonviolent, took some precautionary measures as drizzle, wind and darkness moved across the campground. They asked all nonveterans to leave, requested money for bail and told state protest chairmen to submit to lawyers the names of protesters who would submit to arrest. Several accepted offers to sleep in private homes while others moved into some congressional offices made available for the night.

Anti-War Show Gets Cong O.K.

PARIS (AP) — The Hanoi and Viet Cong delegates at the Vietnam peace talks expressed "warm feelings" today for the antiwar demonstrators in the United States.

Talking to newsmen before the opening of the 110th weekly session of the deadlocked conference, North Vietnamese negotiator Xuan Thuy said Americans opposed to President Nixon's war policies "are taking vigorous action to demand that a date be set for total withdrawal" of all U.S. forces from Indochina.

"I express my profound warm feelings toward these courageous Americans," Thuy added.

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, foreign minister of the Viet Cong's provisional revolutionary government, said "I express my warmest feelings toward the movement for peace in the United States."

Speaking at the meeting, U.S. negotiator David K. E. Bruce again rejected the demand for a unilateral American withdrawal as unreasonable and unacceptable.

The Communist peace terms show "your continued desire to impose your own solution to the conflict rather than to negotiate a fair and honorable settlement of it," Bruce said.

Manson Is Taken to San Quentin

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charles Manson, condemned to die for the murder of Sharon Tate and six others, was taken to San Quentin Prison today after being secretly removed from his cell here, a sheriff's spokesman said.

Manson will undergo two days of routine processing at the death row receiving section of the prison, then will be returned to the Hall of Justice Sunday for trial in a second murder case, the spokesman said.

The hippie-style cult leader was taken from his cell at 4:40 a.m. to a waiting sheriff's van for the 5½-hour drive ride to San Quentin. The sheriff's officials said Manson had "more than two" guards. They would not give the exact number.

Manson was taken out of the Hall of Justice at an early hour and without notice for "security reasons," the spokesman said.

"Mr. Manson was taken to San Quentin to comply with state law than an inmate be transferred to the warden within 10 days after sentencing," a statement said. Manson and three women followers were formally sentenced to death Monday.

Manson probably won't be placed in a death row cell but will be held in a holding facility since he'll be returning to Los Angeles, spokesmen said.

The women are being held at the county Sybil Brand Institute awaiting transfer to California Institute for Women at Corona.

On Wednesday, Manson was evicted from a courtroom after he screamed when told he couldn't represent himself as an attorney in the second murder case.

Manson, 36, was taken to a nearby holding cell for the remainder of the hearing which involved pretrial defense motions in the Gary Hinman "Shorty" Shea murder cases. The hearing was continued to Monday.

Raid on N. Vietnam Never Made

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Walter F. Mondale has told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he has letters indicating U.S. forces planned a ground attack in North Vietnam early this year.

The raid, which Mondale said was to have occurred at the Vinh airfield 100 miles north of the demilitarized zone, apparently never occurred.

The Minnesota Democrat said Wednesday the letters came from an officer on a ship off Vietnam. He did not identify the writer.

He said the officer wrote a friend Feb. 7, telling of the planned raid. A second letter, dated March 11, gave the location of the proposed raid and added:

"Don't know if they ever seriously considered committing us—but the helicopters rehearsed daily and a Russian trawler shadowed us."

A Mondale aide said the Vinh facility is used chiefly as a troop transit point. He said other parts of the letters make clear the two companies considered for the raid were American troops.

The Pentagon said there were no U.S. Marine amphibious landings in North Vietnam earlier this year and none were planned.

Would Store Atom Bombs on Subs

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's chief science adviser has a new plan for deterring atomic warfare: The two superpowers would store all their nuclear missiles aboard submarines at sea so neither could destroy the other in a first strike.

"It is only when both sides have a survivable force of agreed capability that stability can be assured," Dr. Edward E. David Jr., chief of the White House Office of Science and Technology, said Wednesday night in an address to the Acoustical Society of America.

David, an acoustics expert and former Bell Laboratory scientist, said: "It may well be that underwater sound and submarine warfare are going to become the key to national security and peace."

"This will come about through a chain of possible events which begins with the strategic arms limitation talks (SALT)."

"The United States hopes to obtain from these talks limitations on both offensive and defense missile systems."

But David added: "Should the Soviet Union agree to an enforceable limit the time may well come when a land-based retaliatory force, either missiles or aircraft, will not be able to survive a first strike by the opposing force."

"The alternative to land basing, of course, is to send the missiles to sea, as we and the Soviets have already done in part," David said.

"It is the survivability of sea-based missiles in submarines which could turn out to be the last refuge for a survivable force."

The scientist then said: "Should sea-based submarine forces become the major deterrent to a nuclear war, underwater sound and submarine warfare will assume a much more important role in national and world security than presently."

STAGE LIGHTS (from page one)

are conducted," she said. "They are role-playing and it gives them confidence," she said.

Today and Friday, the high school students at the school proudly will present three one-act plays.

Of a student case of 10, two are totally blind. The rest are declared legally blind, with varying degrees of vision.

The students have been rehearsing the plays since February. Before that they built their stage props.

Not only did they build the sets, but they made their own costumes and conducted a scavenger hunt for the necessary materials for a play.

The principals in the play stand patiently on stage during the long hours of rehearsal, repeating lines and gestures over and over again.

Miss Bryant tucked her long legs under her in a theater seat, ran a hand over her blonde hair and told the students they were going to practice and practice until they "get it right."

She was fighting a tendency in the students to say their lines with a Southern drawl and the fact that some of the actors have no realization of gestures. Even a slap must be rehearsed.

Miss Bryant instructed a student to hold onto her hand while she gave another student a light touch on the chin. They repeated the gesture until it looked amazingly real.

Not all the hours are spent in actual rehearsals, Miss Bryant said. The students walk over the stage with the props and lighting in place to learn where the obstacles are.

A misplaced wire sent Lou Ann, a tiny sophomore, sprawling. She picked herself up and quickly moved through her lines.

On a second rehearsal of the scene, the same wire, still out of place, dumped her again.

In last year's play, Miss Bryant said the only technical mistake was hers. In the darkness backstage, she plugged in the wrong light.

She says the students are much better working backstage because they can work more effectively than she in the dark.

Would Apply Integration in All Areas

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Contending the government applies separate standards to the North and South, Southern senators are urging Congress to write a national school-desegregation policy to be administered by the White House.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., planned to ask the Senate today to add the uniform policy to a Nixon administration bill authorizing $1.5 billion a year to aid states in school desegregation.

Another pending amendment, by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., would allow school districts to use the money for any purpose.

By a 51-35 vote Wednesday the Senate rejected a tough national-policy measure offered by Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn. It would have integrated black, inner-city pupils into suburban schools in every metropolitan area of the nation over a 10-year period.

Stennis said Nixon administration policy on school desegregation "is a sham and a pretense when it is called a uniform policy."

While strong action has been taken against Southern school districts, he said, "virtually nothing has been done anywhere outside the South."

In a 56-36 vote last year, the Senate adopted a similar Stennis national-policy amendment which was watered down heavily in conference with the House.

The stronger Ribicoff proposal went down before an unusual coalition including civil rights groups, the Nixon administration, a majority of Southerners who voted and several liberals with big cities in their states.

Clarence Mitchell, Washington spokesman for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the measure could have delayed integration by postponing it in some cities for 10 years.

Secretary Elliot L. Richardson of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare wrote that President Nixon felt it would be "a serious mistake" to adopt the amendment.

Southern senators opposed it by a majority of 8 to 7 with many saying it would pose unacceptable conditions for their communities.

However, some said privately they were voting for it in the hope its adoption would kill the desegregation-money bill.

Bumpers Interested in Toll Roads

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Wednesday he believed revenues collected from tolls would be sufficient to pay off bonds to finance toll roads between Little Rock and Pine Bluff and between Fort Smith and Rogers.

Bumpers said in an interview that he planned to ask the state Turnpike Authority to meet within 10 days to discuss the possibility of building the toll roads.

Bumpers said at the authority meeting he will discuss the possibilities of a western Arkansas turnpike at least from Fort Smith to Rogers and the possibility of completing the Little Rock-Pine Bluff turnpike.

U.S. 65, which connects Little Rock and Pine Bluff already is a four-lane highway for 12 miles south of Little Rock.

Under the 1967 state turnpike law, unfeasible toll roads cannot be built.

Legislative Delay Blasted by Mayors

NEW YORK (AP) — Nine mayors, faced with "myriads of problems" and money shortages, say the country's urban ills are the fault of sluggish state legislatures and antiquated local bureaucracies.

The mayors, members of the Legislative Action Committee of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, toured the city Wednesday to focus attention on urban problems.

They were asked to describe the toughest thing about being a mayor. Here are the responses:

Kevin White, Democrat of Boston:

"I think the most frustrating thing for new mayors—and many of them are quitting after one term these days—is not being able to solve the problems of their cities."

"It's not enough to be elected anymore. We've got a better breed of mayor than ever before. But many walk into the job thinking they can shelve the politics of the crises because of the importance of the problems. They can't."

"We've experimented with imaginative civic programs and the patients—the people and groups within the city—haven't responded. What today's mayor needs is courage to stand up to his constituency and money—a lot of it from Washington."

Dutch elm disease was first detected in the Netherlands in 1921 and recognized in North America in 1930, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Mrs. DeVaughn Samuels had a most interesting program, "The Glass Greenhouse," in which she told how to grow plants in bottles and jars. The ideas for a miniature garden were well-received. A yellow Dutch iris line arrangement by Mrs. Roy Roberts took first place in the judging.

Cookies, cold drinks and coffee were served to 7 members and 1 guest, Mrs. Beady Carver.

American Legion Auxiliary

"April has been designated the month in which the American Legion Auxiliary concentrates its attention on children and youth activities," said Mrs. Joe Jones, President of Unit 12, Leslie Huddleston American Legion Auxiliary, at a meeting on Tuesday night, April 19 in the home of Mrs. Vance Marcum.

She introduced Harry Hawthorne, Legion Post 12 Service officer, who spoke on the Child Welfare Program and Veterans Affairs of the American Legion Department of Arkansas. He cited cases of needy veterans' families who had received emergency financial assistance through the state and local Child Welfare programs of the Legion and the Auxiliary.

Miss Sheryl Kaye Bright, winner of the Americanism Essay Contest at Hope High, sponsored by Unit 12, was presented a silver medal and the $5 Unit President's Award by Mrs. Jones. She also read her winning essay.

Important announcements of interest to the Unit included a visit by the National President, Mrs. Charles Shaw of Illinois, on May 1 at the M.M. Eberts Post home, 315 Capital, Little Rock, and the District 12 Spring Conference on May 23 at 2 p.m. at the county courthouse in Ashdown.

Senior Auxiliary members contributed 302 "Pennies for Panama" and the junior members gave 198. Miss Floice Taylor announced that National Poppy Day will be Saturday, May 29.

The 18 at the meeting included several guests, Mr. Hawthorne, Miss Bright, Mrs. Arval May and Mr. Marcum. Cake was served with hot punch or coffee for refreshments.

IS DRUG ALARM OVERDONE?

Dear Helen:

This makes me totally sick! All the business about drugs has harassed my mind so much that if someone offered me a smoke I would take it out of pure curiosity. What do they think we are? Retarded idiots?

First thing when I turn on the radio, it's "Bust the pusher." "Don't take heroin, marijuana, LSD . . ." We've already heard enough of this jive, so we don't need a tape recorder pounding it in our ears.

"Turn-on-ation" has been around for centuries (we didn't discover dope, you know), but now it is ADVERTISED hourly. This makes people more rebellious (or curious) than scared.

I don't dig it. When my Mom repeated things over and over, I didn't learn. I just turned her off—or else I did what she nagged about just to get even.

I know that drugs could never solve my problems, but when I'm warned about how great a temptation they are—constantly—I sure get wondering, "If they're all that popular, maybe I'm missing something."—JUST VOICING MY OPINION

Dear JVMO:

Overkill? You might be right.

I think sane education, beginning in the primary grades plus continued onslaught on supply lines, are our two biggest hopes for lessening drug abuse.

. . . . And the most effective education comes from "seeing it" close in. As more and more young people observe the effects of dangerous drugs only the blind can't see them every day at school or on the street) sensible kids won't be tempted. And I still maintain, most kids are sensible. Right?—H.

Some Details About Social Security

If you have any questions regarding social security, send them to the Social Security Office, Box 1319, Texarkana, Texas. Attention: Ken Hargis.

Q. I have my own business. When I applied for my retirement insurance not long ago, your representative said there was an error in the amount of net earnings reported by me, and he says I am entitled to a tax refund. Can you explain that?

A. You failed to state all of your business expenses on the self-employment part of your income tax return. We are required to reduce the reported net income by the amount of unclaimed expenses in figuring your average earnings to determine the amount of your social security benefit. Since you overstated your net earnings, you overpaid your tax, and a refund or adjustment is in order.

Q. I understand that social security cannot be paid for the first six months of a worker's disability. Why is that?

A. Disability benefits are payable only when a worker's inability to work will be of long continued duration. Disability benefits are not paid for a temporary or partial disability. The six month waiting period allows for an evaluation of the worker's condition in order to determine the extent of his impairment and whether his disability can be expected to last not less than 12 months as provided by law.

Q. I will be age 65 in July, 1971 and plan to retire. When should I file my claim?

A. You should file your claim now. By filing now you will have your check at the earliest possible date. We will also enroll you in the hospital and medical insurance part of Medicare, to be effective July 1, 1971.

Q. Is it true that the social

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Two multimillion-mile travelers—their one common trait—have important network dates during the next couple of days.

Jascha Heifitz, recently turned 70, will make his television concert debut on NBC Friday at 10-11 p.m. EST. The hour must take its place with the recent Horowitz and Rubinstein programs and will be a real special for lovers of music and the violin.

Jim McKay, just turned 50, will preside over a highlights program on ABC Saturday at 5-6 p.m. EST marking the 10th anniversary of his "Wide World of Sports," an occasion for the sports watcher. The program has covered more than 100 sports and never repeated a program.

The world famous violinist chose to tape the musical portions of his program last fall in Paris because he was offered the accompaniment of the French National Orchestra—"without a conductor so the musicians and I could work together without interference."

His program will range from Mozart and Bach to Gershwin. For appeal to the average viewer, the musical portion will be preceded by scenes of the maestro at leisure in his Beverly Hills, Calif., home.

McKay is a sharp contrast in life styles. While Heifitz has traveled the world on the concert circuit, McKay, whose job keeps him away from home about half the time, flies out of and back to New York almost as often as a commercial pilot.

He has worked briefly in countries ranging alphabetically from Argentina to Yugoslavia covering athletic events including rattle-snake hunts, sumo wrestling, aerobatics and ice dancing.

He finds skiing the hardest sport to cover. He says soccer has never caught on here because "there's something about not using hands and arms," and that tennis would be bigger on TV if there were better and more colorful American players.

Jim believes he is getting better at handling the problem caused by abrupt time changes.

"It is called asynchronism," he said, "and even the State Department recognizes it. They like to give their people two or three days to get their internal clocks reset. I find the best way to avoid trouble is to eat little and drink nothing on the plane. Take a one-or two-hour nap—no more—on arrival. Then get up and start operating on local time."

Northrup and Detroit Jolt Tigers Twice

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Who's on first? Jim Northrup. As a matter of fact, he's on second, third and home plate, too.

"Northrup is hot," says Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver, "and when you're hot, you're hot."

Baltimore's been burned two nights in a row by the Detroit outfielder, so Weaver speaks from painful, first-hand experience. Northrup, who delivered four runs in Tuesday night's Detroit victory, belted in three more Wednesday night as the Tigers bumped the Birds 5-1.

The powerhouse performance have lifted Northrup in front in the American League's RBI race. But they haven't done a thing for his ego.

"I don't think I'll ever be a superstar like the Willie May's, Hank Aaron and Mickey Mangles," said Northrup after hitting a home run and two doubles. "I don't think I'll ever fit into that category. A superstar is a guy who plays 15 years or more and does the job all those years."

"I'm not going to fill any ball parks. But, to a kid who likes Jim Northrup ... well, then, maybe I'm a superstar. It depends how you define it."

The fans in the center field bleachers at Tiger Stadium have their own definition. When Northrup loped out to his position after his sixth-inning double, they gave him a standing ovation. Northrup doffed his hat and grinned.

Boston whipped Detroit 9-7, Washington outscored the New York Yankees 9-6 and Oakland stopped California 4-2 in 13 innings in the other American League games.

Wet grounds postponed Kansas City at Minnesota and the Chicago at Milwaukee game was wiped out by cold weather. In the National League, Pittsburgh ripped Atlanta 10-2; New York took Cincinnati 5-2; St. Louis downed San Francisco 5-3 and Los Angeles blasted San Diego 10-2. The Philadelphia-Montreal and Houston-Chicago contests were postponed by rain.

Northrup, who's long played second fiddle to a cast of Detroit stars like Al Kaline and Norm Cash, is off to the best getaway of his eight-year major league career with 17 RBI.

While Mickey Lolich held baseball's defending champions in check with five hits, Northrup bugged the Birds with a solo home run in the first inning and run-producing doubles in the third and fifth. Lolich struck out nine Orioles, whose only score was Andy Etchebarren's third inning homer.

The two-game Tiger sweep didn't disturb Weaver.

"I'll take us two days longer to clinch the pennant," he said.

Carl Yastrzemski clubbed four hits, including a home run and two-out eighth-inning double which drove in the tie-breaking run for Boston. Yaz was surprised the Indians decided to pitch to him in eighth with a man on second, first base open and right-hander Vince Colbert on the mound for the Indians.

The three-time American League batting champion then whistled the first pitch on a line to left field, where it eluded Roy Foster's diving shoestrapping. Joe Lahoud scored the go-ahead run from second.

Frank Howard stroked a run-scoring single with two out in the eighth inning to break a tie for Washington and the Senators added two more in the

Stargell in 3 Homers as Pirates Win

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Those April showers are just the home runs Willie Stargell is raining all over the National League.

The Pittsburgh strong boy, rapidly becoming the biggest menace to Atlanta since Gen. Sherman, whacked three more home runs and drove in five runs as the Pirates trounced the Braves 10-2 Wednesday night.

With nine homers in the young season, Stargell is one short of the major league record for April shared by Baltimore's Frank Robinson and Cincinnati's Tony Perez. Seven of the nine have come against Atlanta pitching.

"This is a funny game," said Stargell. "I can't explain why you do better one night than another."

Neither can the Braves' pitchers, and they aren't even laughing. Nor are the batters who have to face New York's hard-throwing Tom Seaver. The Mets' ace right-hander set a club record of 2 consecutive scoreless innings in a 5-2 victory over Cincinnati.

Elsewhere in the NL, St. Louis shaded San Francisco 5-3 and Los Angeles handed San Diego its eighth straight defeat 10-2. Houston at Chicago and Philadelphia at Montreal were rained out.

American League scores: Detroit 5, Baltimore 1; Oakland 4, California 2 in 13 innings; Washington 9, New York 8; Boston 9, Cleveland 7. Kansas City at Minnesota was postponed by wet grounds and Chicago at Milwaukee was halted by cold.

Last year at this time Stargell was "oh for April," hitting, he thinks, about .042. His first homer Wednesday came in the first inning with one man on base and he hit a solo shot in the fourth, both off loser Jim Nash. His third homer, in the sixth, came off Tom Kelley, but he failed in his bid to become the eighth player in baseball history to hit four home runs in a nine-inning game when he struck out against Steve Barber in the seventh.

"I was trying to hit a home run," he confessed.

Bob Robertson also homered for the Pirates and Richie Hebner snapped an 0-for-24 skid with a two-run single as the Bucks broke out of their batting slump with a vengeance in support of Dock Ellis' five-hit pitching.

Seaver, who needed eighth-inning relief from Tug McGraw, had his scoreless streak broken in the seventh when he walked Johnny Bench with two out and Willie Smith doubled. The old club mark of 23 innings was set in 1969 by both Jerry Koonsman and Jim McAndrew.

The Mets, who got run-scoring singles from Cleon Jones in the first inning and Bob Aspromonte in the seventh, wrapped it up with three in the eighth as they beat Gary Nolan for only the second time in 11 decisions and for the first time ever as a starter.

The Reds chased Seaver in the eighth on Woody Woodward's third hit, a walk and Pete Rose's run-scoring single. But they had plenty of kind words afterwards.

"When I get three hits off Seaver in one night it's as good as two years' work for me," said Woodward. Manager Sparky Anderson said Seaver "is a great pitcher, in a class with Bob Gibson and Juan Marichal."

Gibson was in action, too, Wednesday. The St. Louis fireballer hurled a five-hitter and Joe Torre lashed a bases-loaded triple as the Cardinals shelved San Francisco's Gaylord Perry for all five runs in the sixth inning.

Trailing 2-0 on Willie McCovey's fourth-inning homer, his first of the season, the Cards erupted on Matty Alou's single, Alan Gallagher's throwing error and a single by Ted Simmons. Torre then sent all three runners scampering home with his triple and the other two runs came across on Jose Cardenal's double and Joe Hogue's single. Ken Henderson homered for the Giants' final run.

The setback snapped Perry's nine-game winning streak, three this year. Gibson has whipped the Giants eight straight and the last time he

Colonels Are Even With Virginia

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Colonels have discovered all they have to do to beat Virginia is to stop one of the Squires' Scotts.

Charlie Scott poured in 30 points Wednesday night, but the stingy Kentucky defense held veteran pivotman Ray Scott to just 13 points as the Colonels posted a solid 128-110 victory to even their American Basketball Association Eastern Division finals at two games apiece.

In the National Basketball Association, Lew Alcindor poured in 31 points as Milwaukee defeated Baltimore 98-88 to take a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven championship playoffs.

Utah, with a surprising 3-1 game lead over Indiana, could clinch the ABA's Western Division title tonight when the two teams meet at Indianapolis.

But back to the Colonels and their Scott problem.

Ray Scott, who averaged just 14.3 points per game during the regular season, had clicked for a 26.3 average in the first three playoff games against the Colonels. But Virginia coach Al Bianchi used him only sparingly Wednesday—and when he was in three Colonels usually collapsed on him to keep the ball away.

Rookie center Dan Issel led Kentucky with 31 points and 16 rebounds as the Colonels took the lead for good early in the third period and never let Virginia get closer than eight points in the final quarter.

Issel had a lot of support, as guards Darel Carrier and Louie Dampier notched 25 and 22 points, respectively, and forward Jim Ligon had 15 points and 17 rebounds.

Charlie Scott, who has averaged 31 points in the series, was the only Squire who managed to penetrate Kentucky's defense with any regularity. No other Virginia player had more than 14 points.

The fifth game is set Friday at Hampton, Va., the sixth here Saturday, and the seventh, if needed, at Roanoke, Va., Tuesday night.

Bucks Are Unhappy With Victory

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
MILWAUKEE (AP) — It was the Milwaukee Bucks against the opener of the National Basketball Association championship series, but the spectre of last year's champion New York Knicks hovered over them.

"We played very bad," Coach Gene Shue of the Bulls said simply.

Coach Larry Costello of the Bucks said only a bit more. "We were not sharp. I think Baltimore can play better and I know we can play better."

Both were talking about Milwaukee's sloppy 98-88 uninspiring victory over the Bulls in the national television game Wednesday night for a 1-0 lead in the best-of-7 series.

Oddly, the Knicks, eliminated by Baltimore last Monday in a grueling seventh game of their semifinal series, were blamed by both clubs for the off-night in Milwaukee had 23 turnovers and Baltimore 14.

"Subconsciously, we have had to readjust our thinking," explained Greg Smith of the Bucks.

The Bucks, haunted by the thirst for revenge against the Knicks, who eliminated them in the playoffs last season and were the only team to dominate them this season, had only two days to put the Knicks out of mind and set their sights on the Bulls.

The Bulls were too tired to get their thoughts off their very satisfying victory over the Knicks, who eliminated them the past two years.

Without the lift that carried them past the Knicks—despite the loss of starters Eddie Miles, Gus Johnson and Kevin Loughery for all or parts of the series—the Bulls were no match for the heavily-favored Bucks and awesome Lew Alcindor.

The 7-foot-2 monster man of the middle took the game out of Baltimore's hands in the third quarter with 18 points on eight of 11 shots from the field.

Alcindor, who sat out 15 minutes of the first half in four trouble and had only eight points and one rebound, raised the Bucks from a 50-42 halftime lead to an 11-point spread entering the final period. With neither team a ball of fire, that type of lead was enough, although the spunky Bulls made one last gasp and pulled within six points before running out of steam.

Alcindor finished with 31 points on 13 field goals in 16 tries and added 16 rebounds in the final half.

Oscar Robertson was the other big Buck, taking over in Alcindor's absence for 15 of his total 22 points in the first half.

Earl Monroe had 26 for the Bulls, who hit only 36.4 percent from the field and 47.6 from the free throw line.

Milwaukee, too, was off their record regular season pace of more than 50 percent from the field, managing only 46.8 despite Alcindor's accuracy.

The teams resume with game No. 2 in Baltimore Sunday afternoon, again on national television.

The third game will be back here next Wednesday night with No. 4 in Baltimore Friday night, April 30.

Ernie Banks Rejoins Chi Cubs

CHICAGO (AP) — Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' unsinkable optimist, officially starts the 1971 baseball season today and it may be a boon to the struggling Bruins.

Banks, 40-year-old first baseman, was placed on the disabled list April 1 because of arthritic knees and he missed being in the opening day lineup for the first time since his first full Cub season in 1954.

"I feel fine, just fine," said the ever-smiling Banks, "and I hope that in some way I can continue to help the Cubs."

That "some way" probably will be mainly in a pinch-hitting role and spot appearances at first base where Manager Leo Durocher already has used two other players.

The Cubs, left at the starting gate in the National League East race with a 5-9 record, try to conclude a rain-interrupted series with the Houston Astros today.

Wednesday's game was rained out. The Cubs defeated the Astros 3-1 in Tuesday's opener of a 12-game home stand.

The Cubs could get more than moral support from Banks, who batted .407 in the 12 spring exhibition games his ailing knees permitted him to play in the United States National team.

Koroll plays on a line with Mikita, who had 24 goals and 72 points, and Dennis Hull, who had 40 goals and 66 points during the regular season. So far, the unit has announced for all the Hawks' scoring in the two tight games against the Rangers.

then.

Hickman, a big money player for the Cubs last season with a .315 batting average, has been limited to four games by a virus and an ulcer. He has a current .105 average on two hits in 17 trips.

Koroll, the Denver University grad, scored the only goal in Chicago's 2-1 overtime loss in the opener of this series, and then scored the first goal and set up Dennis Hull for the second in Tuesday's 3-0 victory that evened the best-of-seven set at one game apiece.

During the regular season, the sturdy right winger had 16 goals and 34 assists for 50 points—sixth highest on the Hawks. But against the Rangers, Koroll totaled six scoring points—tops for Chicago.

"I don't know, maybe I try a little harder against the Rangers," said Koroll. Why? "Because of Jeff Jennings, that's why."

Jeff Jennings is the son of Ranger President Bill Jennings which alone shouldn't be enough to turn on Cliff Koroll. But the younger Jennings happened to be Koroll's roommate at Denver, and that's certainly enough.

Koroll was one of eight players on Denver's 1968 National Collegiate champions to move into professional hockey. The others include defenseman Keith Magnuson, his Chicago teammate, Jim Wiste of Vancouver, Tom Miller and Jim Shires of Detroit, George Morrison of St. Louis and minor leaguers Tim Gould and Bob Trembecky.

Another member of the team, Craig Patrick, son of St. Louis Blues executive Lynn Patrick, plays for the United States National team.

North Stars Again Face Montreal

MONTREAL (AP)—Minnesota North Stars forward Charlie Burns says he doesn't have grand illusions about his team upsetting the Montreal Canadiens in the Stanley Cup semifinals, but the veteran does not want the West Division team to bow out without a battle.

"The important thing for us is to go out in style with our heads up," Burns said Wednesday.

"Not like Tuesday night. When you work so hard all season, why humiliate yourselves when there is no need to be humiliated."

The North Stars were bombed 7-2 by Montreal in the opening game of the series Tuesday night and face the Canadiens at the Forum tonight.

"What we lack is confidence against the Canadiens," said Burns. "You look at them as a far better team than we are. We don't have the confidence or the cockiness we had to beat the St. Louis Blues."

"It's strange that we played some of our best games during the season against the old clubs. Maybe the Canadiens can't reach their best against us and that's our advantage if we can play three good periods."

"I definitely think we can win one game. Our team has improved with the addition of Murray Oliver, Doug Mohns and Ted Hampson. It's not so long ago that the Canadiens had their problems."

"Our style is close checking and waiting for opportunities. We can't let Lemaire, Richard and the Mahovliches free wheel. We have enough problems trying to check them."

"We have a lot of players like Ted Harris, Danny Grant, Bobby Rousseau, Cesare Maniogo, Gump Worsley and Jude Drouin who once belonged to Montreal. It means so much to them to play well and the rest of the North Stars feel the same way."

Maniogo, the 6-foot-3 goalie, admits the North Stars face a tough hurdle, but is not ruling out an upset.

Maniogo is scheduled to start in goal for Minnesota tonight. Worsley was in nets the first game and was left pretty much on his own by a shaky Minnesota defense.

TCU and Baylor Beef Up Offense

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Texas Tech Texas Christian and Baylor put on explosive displays of offense Wednesday in spring football drills.

Quarterback Charles Napper of Texas Tech hit 13 of 26 passes for 125 yards as the No. 1 Red Raider offense drew praise from Coach Jim Carlen.

Wide receiver Johnny Odom caught eight of the passes for 97 yards, prompting Carlen to remark "Odom seemed to be catching everything that was thrown his way."

Freshman Joe Barnes, the No. 2 quarterback, ran for 111 yards on 11 carries. He scored two touchdowns—one on a 65-yard scamper.

"It was one of our better offensive days," remarked Baylor Coach Bill Beall of a two-hour Wednesday morning workout.

Beall was happy with the throwing and running of senior quarterback Si Southall. He also said all three fullbacks, Gene Wilson, Wayne Prescher and Marcus Rogers, looked good.

T. J. Hutchinson's 73-yard touchdown gallop highlighted Southern Methodist's scrimmage but Coach Hayden Fry wasn't particularly pleased with the overall picture.

"We had a lot of good hard collisions," Fry said. "Our defense did a fine job. The offense was terrible at first then got better as the scrimmage wore on."

Fry had some kind words for senior quarterback Gary Hammond.

"Hammond can make the wrong decision on the option but still make a big play out of it," Fry said. "He's quite a player."

Hammond hit 6 of 12 passes for 67 yards during the scrimmage.

At TCU, new Coach Jim Pittman unlimbered his passing attack for the first time and said "We found out that we've got several players who can go get the football and a couple who can throw it."

Junior tight end Ronnie Peoples caught Pittman's eye. Peoples made seven catches for 92 yards.

Pittman said "Peoples is just a fantastic football player. He does a great job at all times and doesn't let a little contact bother him."

In the passing department, senior quarterback Steve Judy hit 11 of 26 for 143 yards. Kent Marshall completed six of 19 for 107.

Commenting on the Wednesday night workout, Pittman concluded "This is the first time we have seriously looked at our

New Twist in Running Blue Grass

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The 47th annual Blue Grass Stakes, the last major prep before the May 1 Kentucky Derby, was in for a new twist today at Keeneland if at least 13 of the 14 thoroughbreds went to the post.

The record-tying field of 14 in the 1 1/4-mile, $25,000-added event was to start at the eighth pole and wind up at the sixteenth pole instead of beginning at the sixteenth pole and ending at the regular finish line.

Track officials announced the change to guard against a jam on the first turn, such as the one which occurred when Go-yamo defeated 13 rivals in the 1957 Blue Grass.

Greentree Stable's Dynastic, with Bill Shoemaker up, was established as the early 3-1 favorite by the track handicapper.

The entry of Pastoral Stable's Arkansas Derby winner Twisted the Axe and W. P. Rosso's Impetuosity was listed at 7-2 Wednesday night.

John M. Olin's Louisiana Derby winner Northfields and Mrs. Taylor Hardin's Sole Mio, another entry, were put at 9-2.

Still another entry was Phillip Teinowitz' On the Money and Royal Leverage. The Blue Grass, a furlong shorter than the Kentucky Derby, has produced 13 Derby winners, including six of the last nine.

Only the 7-furlong Stepping Stone Purse on Saturday and the one-mile Derby Trial April 27, both at Churchill Downs, remain as tuneups for the 97th run for the Roses.

McIntire Seeks 6th Golf Title

By KEN ALTYA

Associated Press Sports Writer
PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—When Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page won her record seventh North and South amateur golf championship over an 11-year span in 1945, it appeared she had an impregnable mark.

But a dozen years later, along came Barbara McIntire to launch a string of her own that has included five titles in 14 years.

The dress shop operator from Colorado Springs, Colo., carried her bid for No. 6 into today's semifinals against Lancy Smith of Snyder, N.Y.

The other 18-hole match paired defending champion Hollis Stacy of Savannah, Ga., against the big surprise of the 69th annual tournament, Beth Barry of Mobile, Ala.

The winners will meet in an 18-hole title match Friday over the 51900-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club.

Miss McIntire's route to the semifinals has parried her against three of the top contenders in the original field of 70. She has beaten Connie Day, Cynthia Hill and Mrs. Nancy Roth Syms in that order, the latter two in Wednesday's double round.

Mrs. Syms suffered her fourth one-up quarter-finals defeat in five years since she won her second North and South in 1966.

At 36, Miss McIntire, twice winner of the national amateur title, is the oldest of the semifinalists. Miss Smith is 23, Miss Barry 22 and high schooler Miss Stacy turned 17 only last month.

Miss Smith, playing in the tournament for the fifth time, has advanced beyond the quarter-finals for the first time. She has played considerable tournament golf in recent years and last year won the South Atlantic tournament in Florida, the Eastern Amateur and her second straight New York State title. When not playing golf, she works for her dentist father as lab assistant and receptionist. Her victories Wednesday were over Southern Amateur champ Kathy Hite and Carol Semple, the medalist.

Miss Stacy, whose game has been improving with each match this week, continues to show poise and ability far beyond her years.

To Give Fight Fans Points Every Round

By HUBERT MIZELL

Associated Press Sports Writer
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Boxing fans never know who's winning for sure until the fight is over.

But, that may be the beginning to change.

Television viewers of Saturday night's Bob Foster-Ray Anderson light heavyweight title bout will be shown the scores of the referees and judges immediately after each round.

Since it's the brainchild of the American Teleports Network, the cumulative scorecard will not be shown to "live" spectators at Curtis Hixon Hall.

"Boxing is the only sport where the as-you-go score is kept secret," said Bill Schwing, president of the new independent TV network.

"Not only the fans have been in the dark, but the boxers."

Champion Foster and challenger Anderson won't know their round-by-round scores until it's over, but Schwing conceded Thursday that full knowledge for all could be the next step.

"Suppose the audience had known Joe Frazier was well ahead of Muhammad Ali even before the 15th round knockdown," he said. "Then, it would have been obvious that Ali needed a kayo to win."

The network plans to bring regularly-scheduled prime time boxing back to home television for the first time in eight years.

"We'll do one bout a month," said Schwing, "and it's pretty certain we have attracted every division's best fighters with the exception of the heavyweights."

The heavies such as Frazier and Ali do their stuff for more lucrative theater television.

ATN is a five-month-old subsidiary of Transmedia International Corporation of New York. It plans to compete with Hughes Sports Network for the best in the independent market.

Birmingham Beats Travs by 5 to 3

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Roger Cain blasted a two-run homer in the bottom of the fifth inning to spark Birmingham to a 5-3 victory over the Arkansas Travelers Wednesday night.

Cain's smash came with Jesus Trillo aboard to give the Athletics a 4-3 lead. Birmingham added an insurance run in the eighth to raise its season record to 4-3. Arkansas is now 3-6 and trails division-leading Shreveport by 2 1/2 games.

Arkansas jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the second when Jorge Roque walked, stole second and came home on a single to right by Phil Trombino.

Rudy Arroyo was credited with his first loss of the year. He is now 0-1. Sammy Ellis was the winning pitcher.

Coody No Tightwad, He Asserts

RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (AP)—"Tel 'em I'm not really a tightwad."

That was the plaintive plea of newly-crowned Masters champion Charles Coody today before he teed off in the first round of golf's $165,000 Tournament of Champions.

"Maybe I'm a little conservative, but this thing has kind of gotten out of hand. It's mushroomed. It's not the kind of image I'd like to have," the tall, handsome Texan said.

The 33-year-old Coody, who thwarted Jack Nicklaus' dream of a sweep of pro golf's Grand Slam, was one of the favorites for the $33,000 first prize in this tournament that brings together the winners of the major tour events from the last 12 months.

"I'm getting a lot more attention this week than I've had before," the soft-spoken Coody said. "But I really don't know what the Masters means, or will mean, to me."

"I think the myth that the Masters is worth a million dollars is just that, a myth. I don't know what I'll make out of it, or if I'll really make anything out of it. That will take time."

Coody, a winner of only two tournaments prior to his Masters triumph, took the week off last week and went home to Abilene, Tex., for a rest.

"I'd planned on playing at Pensacola," he said, "but when I became eligible for the Tournament of Champions I decided to take it off."

"I don't really plan any great changes in my life or the way I play or anything. Except that I'm thinking of playing in the British Open. But otherwise it'll be pretty much the same."

"I'm just me and I'll stay the same."

But he had one small problem he wanted to talk about.

"It's about this business of being tight," he said. Much was made at the Masters of the published comments of his friend Frank Beard in reference to Coody's closeness with a dollar.

"My family and I live well. We do the things we want. We have the things we want. Sometimes we even go overboard a little."

"It's just that Frank and I have had this thing, this kidding each other about being tight. It's just kidding, but it kind of got out of hand."

Other top challengers in the 35-man field included Arnold Palmer, South African Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus, U.S. Open Champion Tony Jacklin of England and defending titleholder Beard.

nipped Shreveport 5-3, Columbus defeated Montgomery 6-2, Charlotte outlasted Asheville 13-10 in 10 innings, Jacksonville edged Savannah 7-6, Albuquerque thrashed Dallas-Fort Worth 9-2 and Amarillo defeated San Antonio 9-6.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB Quick Diets Based On Loss of Water

Dear Dr. Lamb — Are sauna belts or shorts harmful? If so, what is a safe way to lose weight fast?

Dear Reader—There isn't any good, safe way to lose weight fast—unless you are pregnant and deliver a baby. A number of the quick weight loss methods are really based on losing a lot of water from the body. This is not loss of fat and, of course, the change is only temporary. Since the loss is just water it is neither good for your health nor permanent.

Some devices are helpful and some exercises that are recommended with some devices are helpful in improving muscle tone. This tends to slim the waist line but it does not take off weight. The only good way I know to lose weight is to eat fewer calories and do more physical activity. This is a slow process, but if it is done every day as a way of life, it produces excellent results. People don't gain weight overnight and they shouldn't expect to lose weight overnight either.

Dear Dr. Lamb — Our mother has had high blood pressure. She has taken medicine which has been prescribed for her but the results haven't been too favorable. Is there anything

Instead of responding two clubs your partner has jumped to four spades over your one spade. What do you do now?

Answer Tomorrow

really wasn't a squeeze since the queen of spades wasn't guarded. What I did was to get a complete count of the hand. I knew that East's last two cards were a spade and a high club while West was holding on to the queen of spades and a diamond. Hence the queen of spades had to drop wherever it was.

Larry Banks to Arkansas State U.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Larry Banks, who led Stephens to championships the past two years, has accepted a grant in aid to Arkansas State University.

Banks, a 6-1 guard, averaged 27 points a game last season and won all-state honors while leading his team to the Class A state championship. He was also named the most valuable player in the state tournament.

Banks also is an outstanding student and ranks third in his class with a 3.64 grade point.

Hog Offense Scores on 7 of 10 Tries

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks' offensive unit scored on seven of 10 possessions during a goal-line scrimmage Wednesday.

Sophomore tailback Dicky Minton, fullback Scott Binnion and tailback Jon Richardson each scored twice. Quarterback Joe Ferguson also scored on a seven-yard pass to tight end Bobby Nichols.

Asked if the Porkers were showing improvement, Coach Broyles said, "No, we're getting worse, but that's to be expected. The players are pretty sore and bruised up right now."

Broyles was especially disappointed with the Arkansas passing game.

"It was pitiful," he said. "We had dropped passes, bad throws, missed protections and busted plays."

Fullback Russ Garber sat out the Wednesday practice. Broyles said Garber's absence was a precautionary measure against the possibility of a pulled leg muscle.

Hearing for Wilburn at Harrison

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — A public hearing has been requested for Tuesday night on the firing of Dean Wilburn as head basketball coach and athletic director at Harrison High School.

Wilburn was fired Tuesday night on a 4-3 vote of the school board.

Wilburn said he was not given any reason for his dismissal and had asked for the hearing. He said it was his understanding that board officials were drawing up some complaints Wednesday.

He said the board alleged that he was being dismissed because of insubordination, failure to communicate with youngsters, dissension among the coaches and unfair press releases.

Quarterly Conference And Youth Musical At Bethel Church

The 2nd quarterly conference of Bethel A.M.E. Church, Hope, will convene Sunday and Monday night, April 25-26.

The senior choir will provide the music for the 10:50 a.m. worship services under the direction of Miss Brenda Wilson, with Mrs. Esther Hicks, church organist, accompanist. The Selmon hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God", by Luther, will highlight this ritual. The sermon will be delivered by Dr. H.H. Scott, Presiding Elder of the Prescott District.

On Sunday night at 7:00, the youth choir of Bethel will be presented in a "gospel song musical". Miss Cathryn Lorane Scott, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. H.H. Scott, will be guest pianist.

Miss Scott is a very talented gospel song pianist, having studied under Mrs. Christine Shephers and Mrs. Lois Sewell, both of Prescott, and is currently studying organ under the Rev.

W.G. Wynn of Hope.

The choir will close the musical with the "Lord's Prayer", by Malotte.

On Monday night the church will fulfill the business requisitions for the quarterly conference.

Dr. W.G. Wynn, church pastor extends a welcome to the public.

The Junior Anna P. Federated Club will hold its regular meeting Saturday, April 24, at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Sharon Smith.

All members are urged to be present. Business of vital importance is on the agenda.

The Neva and Esther Music Club will hold its regular meeting at the Lonoke Baptist Church Saturday April 24, at 2:00 p.m.

All members are urged to be present. Miss Margaret Turner, President.

The Mt. Zion C.M.E. Church will hold a banquet at the City Park Youth Center Saturday night April 24, at 7:00 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained at the home of Betty Abney on Short Hickory. The telephone number is, 777-6290. Admission, $1.00. Rev. Thomas E. Cherry, Pastor.

Woman's Day At Rising Star

Hearing Set in Murder of U.S. Coed

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A hearing will be held in circuit court here Wednesday on a writ of habeas corpus filed in behalf of Wallace Peter Kunkel, 17, who has been charged with first-degree murder in the April 12 stabbing of a University of Arkansas coed.

Richard Hipp, Kunkel's attorney, filed the writ Tuesday after Kunkel pleaded innocent at his arraignment. He is charged in the death of Miss Pauline F. Stormont, 27, a sophomore student from Ozark.

Bethel A.M.E. Church, Hope. Mrs. Jewel Witherspoon is the president; Rev. W.M. Martin, Pastor.

Obituary

Mrs. Dola Stroughter, a longtime resident of Hope, passed away at her home Wednesday April 21, 1971. She was a member of Bethel A.M.E. Church.

Among her survivors is a daughter, Mrs. Dinkie Modisett of Hope, several grandchildren and other relatives.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

Nol Forms Government in Cambodia

PHNOM PENH (AP) — Gen. Lon Nol, who two days ago said he was too sick to continue as premier, reportedly formed a new government today, ending the young Cambodian Republic's first political crisis.

Sources close to the government said Lon Nol had bowed to entreaties by Chief of State Cheng Heng and several leading army officers and agreed to remain in office even though he has only partially recovered from the stroke he suffered two months ago.

There was no official confirmation of the report.

I appreciate this kindness very much, indeed, and think the nice things your boys do should be called to your attention and thanks to them publicly expressed. Sincerely,

Eight Hope elementary school girls have entered the FFA Junior Rodeo Queen contest, according to Scott Gunter and Randy Hatch, chairmen.

The candidates are Linda Beck, Becky Faulkner, Yvonne Fry, Becky Hamilton, Darlene Jones, Judy Gail May, Lisa Parham, and Paula Kay Underwood.

Selection of the winner will be made by voting at the first showing of the rodeo Friday night at eight o'clock in the coliseum. Announcement of the winner will be at Saturday's show.

The candidates will ride in Friday's parade and in the grand entry each night of the rodeo.

Air Hijacker Gets Light Sentence

ROME (AP) — Raphael Minichiello, the U.S. Marine who set a long-distance hijacking record in 1969, will go free May 1 because of a court decision cutting four years off his prison sentence.

Still hanging over him is a Brooklyn, N.Y., grand jury indictment for hijacking, a federal crime in America for which the maximum penalty is death. But Italy has signed a European convention prohibiting extradition of persons on charges that carry the death penalty.

The court reduced the 21-year-old veteran's sentence from 7½ years to 3½ years on Wednesday

New Devices Check on Tremors

By RICHARD E. MEYER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a red brick building not far from the Pentagon, Bill Dean sits at the hub of an electronic network, waiting, listening, feeling for the earth to shake.

A rumble comes. Dynamite in an Arizona copper mine? Earthquake in California? Or did Red China explode another nuclear device at its underground test site near Lake Lop Nor?

Softspoken, bespectacled William C. Dean, 44, and 30 other Teledyne Corp. scientists and engineers are developing a system of seismometers and computers to identify underground disturbances faster and more accurately for the Defense Department.

Called Project VELA Uniform, the system is still in the research and development stage, but it can detect, locate and measure earth shocks within three to 10 seconds after their shock waves arrive, a process that can take anywhere from 5 to 15 minutes.

It can be programmed for instant analysis to help seismologists determine whether the shocks are natural shifting of rocks deep in the earth or clandestine nuclear tests in the heart of the Soviet Union.

The Pentagon has invested nearly $275 million in VELA since 1960 in an effort to devise a foolproof way to detect and identify underground nuclear explosions. Such ability could open the way toward removing a major obstacle to a treaty banning underground tests.

The United States has signed a treaty banning nuclear tests in the atmosphere, in space and on the ocean floor. But on-site inspection of underground facilities, which the United States wants and the Soviet Union won't abide, has blocked agreement on extending the ban.

Despite the speed with which VELA can detect underground shocks—"I don't think there is a system that can outrun it," said Dean—and despite electronic tentacles so sensitive they can monitor the earth's natural vibrations, the Pentagon's Advanced Research Projects Agency says on-site inspections are still necessary.

"We have research that looks very good, but we're just at the dawn of it," said a spokesman for the agency.

"There are a continuing number of unidentifiable seismic events. And there might always be a threshold in the intensity of these events below which we'll be unable to identify their specific causes."

One reason is uncertainty about VELA's long-distance ability to identify weak pulses of ground motion more peculiar to earthquakes than to explosions.

In identifying secret atomic tests, analysts first apply common sense. If shock waves come from deeper in the earth than man can bury a bomb, for instance, the analysts can safely assume the shock was caused by an earthquake.

If, on the other hand, the shock waves come from the Kazakh Desert south of the Ural Mountains, the analysts can make a pretty good guess that they were caused by a Russian test.

As a byproduct, VELA has become one of the best ways to study earthquakes. On the average, it detects 40 tremors a day, many of them more intense than the Feb. 6 earthquake that killed 64 persons in Los Angeles, but too deep in the bowels of the earth to cause damage.

Some day, said Dean, VELA might be able to help forecast earthquakes. Some scientists think big quakes are preceded by a series of small quakes that build up as seismic strains along faults in the earth begin releasing energy.

Tapes of the Los Angeles quake show no such foreshocks, but Dean isn't giving up. "Looking for foreshocks might not work every time, but it might work enough of the time to be of use."

VELA works this way:

In 200 and 500-foot-deep holes bored into the rolling, windswept plains around Miles City, Mont., 345 seismometers—canister-shaped instruments for detecting tremors—send signals up cables to electronic components in barrel-shaped vaults. From the vaults, the signals go to central terminals serving groups of seismometers ranging in size from 16 to 25, called subarrays. Twenty-one subarrays are arranged in concentric circles. The entire arrangement, covering 12,000 square miles, is called an array, specifically, the Large Aperture Seismic Array.

At the central terminals, the signals are strengthened and turned from wave patterns into numbers. Then they are sent by telephone lines and microwave to Billings, Mont. From Billings, they go on a wide-band telephone line to the red brick building near the Pentagon.

Here, in the Seismic Array Analysis Center, the signals flow into a green telephone terminal box. Signals from a smaller array north of Fairbanks, Alaska, flow into a gray box with a blinking light. And signals relayed by satellite from a new array in Norway enter a blue box.

Signals from Montana go into a speed-up computer, then into a second computer which detects, measures and gives the direction of tremors as their seismic patterns arrive.

Dean and his team are assigned to testing and improving the VELA system, not to monitoring earth shocks, so the second computer makes a list of the tremors it detects and stores them on magnetic tapes for analysis hours, even days, after the quakes happen.

The seismologists are trying to determine how good the system is at detecting weak shock waves from far away, and providing enough accurate information to enable seismologists to say whether they are from earthquakes or from nuclear explosions.

Accounting Change Is Delayed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Max Milam, director of the state Administration Department, said Monday that lack of time and money had prevented the implementation of a new accounting system for state agencies.

Gov. Dale Bumpers said two weeks ago that he hoped to begin a double entry accounting method which would force agencies to list their future ob-

Missile Site Bombing in N. Vietnam

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. fighter-bombers attacked surface-to-air missile sites deep inside North Vietnam and along the Laotian border today. The raids were the sixth so-called protective reaction strikes this week and the 27th this year.

Amid another day of heavy U.S. air activity, ground action continued to be light and scattered. There still was no significant fighting reported in the nine-day-old Vietnamese-American operation in the A Shau valley alongside the lower Laotian panhandle.

About 30 B52 bombers dropped nearly 1,000 tons of bombs on enemy supply routes, storage depots and infiltration corridors in the upper Laotian panhandle bordering North Vietnam, along the demilitarized zone and in eastern Cambodia.

Two F105 fighter-bombers escorting the B52s over Laos fired radar-homing Shrike missiles at the radar-controlled enemy SAM sites.

One target was inside North Vietnam, 5 miles northeast of the Mu Gia pass, about 85 miles northwest of the DMZ and 21 miles east of the Laotian border. The second attack was on a SAM SITE ONE MILE INSIDE Laos, 30 miles northwest of the Mu Gia pass and 105 miles northwest of the DMZ.

The U.S. Command said results were unknown. The American pilots did not see any SAMs fired at them but attacked after their electronic gear told them the enemy missile radar was tracking the U.S. planes preparatory to firing.

In a delayed report, the U.S. Command also disclosed protective reaction strikes inside North Vietnam last Sunday and on Tuesday near the Mu Gia and Ban Karai passes. Two other such strikes had been reported in a communique on Monday.

As usual, results were unknown and there were no reports of any U.S. aircraft being hit.

The U.S. Command's weekly casualty summary said 56 Americans were killed in action last week, 14 more than the previous week; and 195 were wounded, 123 fewer than the week before. Another 22 Americans died of such nonhostile causes as accidents and illness.

This raised total reported American casualties in the war to 44,974 killed in action, 9,459 dead from nonhostile causes, and 297,771 wounded in action.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 494 of its troops were killed in action last week, while the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands claimed 2,791 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops killed last week.

The Cambodian government reported its forces and supporting planes killed 50 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong in an all-day battle Wednesday 60 miles southeast of Phnom Penh. But the Cambodians reported 17 of their own men killed and 16 wounded.

Asks Early Decision on Buffalo

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., stressed today the need for early action on legislation to establish the Buffalo River as a national river.

Speaking before the Senate Committee on the Interior, McClellan said, "The Buffalo River is unique in its rugged natural beauty and must be protected so that its natural state can be preserved."

He pointed out that the area could become a major tourist attraction but that economic factors were not the sole reason for preserving the river. "This kind of wilderness is rapidly disappearing as the nation grows," he said.

McClellan urged the committee to approve the legislation "at the earliest practical date."

Other witnesses scheduled to appear before the committee included Dr. Joe Nix of Arkadelphia, president of the Ozark Society; National Park officials and a representative of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission.

Thinks Drug Abuse Is on Upswing

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee staff report said today drug abuse is on the upswing in the armed forces but rarely occurs in combat.

"We did not find the use of drugs had a significant, direct impact upon the military mission of the armed services," said investigators for the subcommittee on alcoholism and narcotics who visited bases in the United States, Europe and the Far East.

Thursday, April 22, 1971

"While we were made aware of rare, isolated instances where marijuana had been used in combat situations in Vietnam, we saw no evidence that any mission or operation had been jeopardized by drug abuse," they said.

The subcommittee chairman, Sen. Harold E. Hughes, D-Iowa, said the report shows the military is "confronted with a critical and epidemic problem" of drug abuse.

COMMUTING can be rough in Jamaica. Farmers who once made daily voyages down the rapids of the Rio Grande River to float their produce to banana freights at the coast have put their rats to a new money-making use—ferrying tourists on a rough and wet, but scenic, 10-mile ride. The 25-foot raft at times disappears from view in the roiling waters.

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "The envelope, please..."

On April 15 at the Los Angeles Music Center the film community performed its 43rd ritual of award giving—the Oscars. Glamor girls appeared in their most glittering gowns, Bob Hope shot his barbs, and brave words were spoken about the art of the motion picture.

Gaity prevailed, but only for an evening. On the morning after the Academy Awards, film leaders returned to their grinding problem: how to revive a moribund industry.

The grim facts are cited by John Lehnars, business manager of the film editors union and head of the AFL Film Council:

"We estimate that 65 per cent of our membership is unemployed. When you figure there are 30,000 involved, that's a lot of people out of work. Some of our locals have as much as 85 per cent unemployment. The Screen Extras Guild reports 94 per cent."

Movie actors are reputed to lead lavish lives. Yet the Screen Actors Guild says that 75 per cent of its 24,000 members earn less than $3,000 from film work under the Guild contract.

Feature films are a shrinking factor in the income of actors. The Screen Actors Guild members in 1969 earned $27.6 million from features under the Guild contract, $35.9 million from television films and $57.1 million from television commercials. Thus almost half the actors' income came not from dramatic roles but from selling soap, headache pills and other products.

The details of the Hollywood depression were presented to President Nixon by industry leaders recently. They have been seeking legislation to permit film companies to deduct 20 per cent of gross income from U.S.-made films before paying taxes on their income.

Such aid for a single industry could not be passed by Congress this year, the President told the Hollywood delegation.

Lacking government aid, the industry must now look to internal solutions. One plan was introduced last year to combat complaints that film making had become too expensive in Hollywood.

Unions and guilds agreed to allow smaller crews and lesser salaries on films with budgets of less than $1 million. Proponents of the plan consider it a success; 67 such films were produced. Some might have been made with or without concessions, but many would have been made abroad, or here with nonunion crews—or else might never have been filmed.

"I think the concessions are a step in the right direction," says Charlton Heston, president of the Screen Actors Guild. "But the most important change that could be made would be to remove the $1-million limit. It is the $2-million or $5-million films that need help from concessions."

Producer M. J. Frankovich believes that the American industry should copy England's Eady plan, by which theater owners return a percentage of the receipts to producers of films to help finance their next productions.

"There is no chance to get the American taxpayers to share the film industry's problems," said Frankovich. "The real solution would be for the producers and the distributing organizations to meet with the exhibitors and develop a plan similar to the Eady."

Another solution, said the producer, would be to allow producing companies to own theaters. Production and theater ownership was divorced by government decree in 1948.

Whatever the solutions, most observers expect the film industry to survive, in one form or another.

"It damn well better survive," emphasizes actor Heston.

"One of the things we pointed out to the President was that even in its depressed, desperately beleaguered state, the movie industry is still one of the few that contribute to America's balance of trade. He realized that and even mentioned it before we did."

"The other factor is that films are an unparalleled ambassador to show what we are, as a people, what we have been and what we hope to be. Not all films do that. There are some
